

The LASSELSBERGER Group is a European producer of raw materials, building materials and ceramic tiles. Clearly structured into three divisions Ceramics, Minerals and Building Materials, not only the local domestic markets but also many international markets – mainly in Western Europe – are supplied by the production sites in Central and Eastern Europe.

As we are a fast growing company, we are expanding our agile SAP Applications Team with a:

SAP Inhouse Consultant SD (m/f) for the Division Building Materials

As an additional driver of change, be...

... the first point of contact for new and changed process requests for solution design, customizing and system administration (user, master data, organizational structures, etc.)
... consultant and trainer for the defined key users in all entities when introducing new processes
... the link and communicator between the companies, the existing internal SAP-team, and external partners
... part of the upcoming S/4 HANA projects

Do you want?

to work across moduls and expand your knowledge to develop and build up processes to benefit from intercultural exchange to act in an entrepreneurial way

full- or parttime, permanent

60.000 € gross p.a.

Vienna or Pöchlarn

You bring along:

- Project and consulting responsibility
- Practical experience with customizing and administration
- Structured, pragmatic and solution-oriented way of working combined with quick comprehension and a high level of analytical thinking

What we offer you in this position:

- A friendly and dynamic team environment characterized by technical experts
- Your place of work: Vienna or Pöchlarn
- Type of employment: unlimited contract, fulltime
- This position is available immediately
- The total annual gross salary is at least EUR 60.000,- (based on fulltime 40h) depending on your qualifications and previous professional experience, overpayment is possible.

Please send your application documents directly to jobs@lasselsberger.com